THE AMERICAN MINISTER

HE ENTERS UPON HIS NEW DUTIES.

Compliments Pass Between Coloni Blount and President Dole Troops Out.

This morning Minister James H President Dole as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary from the United States to the Hawaiian Isl-

At 9:30 o'clock Chief Clerk Hastings of the Foreign Office, waited on Minister Blount in a carriage at his cottage on Hotel street and escorted him to the inals at to-day's session in Magistrate Government Building.

gathered the same officials that were charge of smugging opium. yesterday present at ex Minister Stevens farewell appearance, excepting the Advisory Council which was represented only by Councilman Waterhouse.

Mr. Blount was dressed in a Prince Judges wore the usual white duck, interspersed with dark cut a ways and sacks.

Blount advanced towards President this time for Jim's punishment. Cleveland and said:

"Mr. President, and Gentlemen of capacity as Minister to these Islands from the United States. I have hither to been employed in performing a duty as Commissioner in investigating and reporting on the affairs of these Islands to the United States. By personal experience I have endeavored to learn the causes and conditions of the changes in your Government, and it is not my intention now to recount them.

"I find in these Islands some disturb ance, but I trust that in my intercourse I shall be able to do my duty and to to have solved the question of "how to duty to call my attention to it, and he engage in such friendly acts as shall be acceptable as well to you as to my own

The President had listened earnestly to the words of the Minister, and when he had finished he said:

"My Dear Mr. Blount: - The appointment by the President of the United States of you as Minister to this Government is a pleasant renewal of our past relations with the United States.

"Your previous appointment as Commissioner has acquainted us with your firmness and integrity, and we feel the American Government will still remain our fast friend now as it has in times past, and that our relations will increase in friendliness.

"We welcome you heartily to our shores and proffer you our every assistance in performing your duties

At the conclusion of this address the President stepped forward and shook The Herring Trial Finished - Minor hands with Minister Blount.

The others in the room gathered around the Minister, who seated himself in one of the department arm Ehrlich for damages, the defendant has chairs, crossed his legs, and commenced to chat about the weather, as though a reception as Minister was an every day occurrence with him.

L After 15 minutes the Minister rose, and bidding an revoir to the officials, went with Mr. Hastings back to his cottage. The band had played appropriate music during the ceremonies, which were public, and the military had been kept at attention

A flag has been put up at the Blount cottage on Hotel street and the house will hereafter be used as the American Legation.

Should be Taken in Hand.

The evening royalist sheet attempts to get a joke on Company A (Auxiliary) N. G. H., because a driver of one of the tram cars (No. 10) nearly ran over the Company while they were drilling in Palace Square yesterday.

The fact is that the driver of this same tram car was several times stopped by the marines of the Boston when they were quartered at the Government building for attempting to whip tableaux of Pygmalion and Galatea up his horses and drive over the squads. This will be in three acts, the first be review. This driver seems to have a praying Venus to make it live; third,
